Reinstatement of Police Widow's Pension – Mrs S (PCC/02/2013)

Report of the Treasurer

Summary

Mrs S has requested the reinstatement of her police widow's pension which was withdrawn when she remarried. Her second husband has recently died and she does not qualify for a widow's pension in respect of her second husband because it was a post retirement marriage. Mrs S is claiming financial hardship and has asked for consideration be given to the reinstatement of widow's pension she was receiving on the death of her first husband.

Recommendation/ Findings:

It is recommended that the application for reinstatement of a widow's pension by Mrs S be approved on the basis of the financial implications detailed in the report submitted.

(The papers are exempted under paragraph 1 of Schedule 12A to the Local Government Act 1972).
