S.22 Regional Collaboration Agreement for a single Dedicated Source Unit for the North East Counter Terrorism Unit

Report of Helen McMillan, Assistant Chief Constable

Summary

In October 2016, the Chief Officers of the seven regional police forces (Cleveland, Durham, Humberside, Northumbria, North Yorkshire, South Yorkshire and West Yorkshire) agreed to create a single Dedicated Source Unit (DSU) for the north east region and to create a regional authorising officer post to provide authorities on all covert human intelligence sources (CHIS).

A regional s.22 agreement has been completed and signed off in relation to CHIS authorisation at the end of last year.

The Agreement now implements the single DSU.

(These papers are exempted under Paragraph 3 of Schedule 12A to the Local Government Act 1972)

Recommendation

The Chief Constable and the Police and Crime Commissioner are asked to approve and sign the s.22 Regional Collaboration Agreement.
