

Northumbria PCC Consultation Responses 2021

Kim McGuinness, in her capacity of Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC), responds to various consultations and inquiries held by the Government and other agencies, providing evidence and insight into a wide range of topics relating to crime and policing. By doing so, the Commissioner aims to influence future policy and ensure the views and needs of Northumbria are put forward.

The PCC has provided a response to the following consultations:

January 2021:

- Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) consultation on the updated rape and sexual offences legal guidance
